

File

File

american society of criminology

1974

annual meeting

November 1-4, 1974

Sheraton-Chicago Hotel
Chicago, Illinois

Hosts

Center for Corrections
Chicago State University

Illinois Academy of Criminology

World Correctional Service Center

Host Committee Chairman

Edward Tromanhauser, President, Illinois
Academy of Criminology

Program Chairman

Edith Elisabeth Flynn, Associate Professor of Sociology and Associate Director of the National Clearinghouse on Criminal Justice Planning and Architecture, University of Illinois

Workers in the trenches of criminal justice -

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM

PROGRAM THEME: CRIME AND THE MORAL ORDER

FRIDAY NOVEMBER 1, 1974

- 2:00 — 3:00 p.m. — Registration and coffee (Foyer, 9th floor)
- 4:00 — 5:00 p.m. — General Session (East Room) Speaker: Dr. Kari Menninger, The Menninger Foundation
- 5:00 — 6:00 p.m. — Executive Board Meeting: Officers, Executive Counselors, Chairpersons, and Past Presidents (Lake Huron Room)
- 6:00 — Informal wine and cheese-tasting reception hosted by Harry H. Woodward, Jr., Lewis University Special Services Center, 75 East Wacker Drive (2 Blocks South of Hotel)

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1974

- 8:30 — 9:30 a.m. — Registration and coffee (Foyer, 9th floor)
- 9:30 — 10:30 a.m. — General Session (East Room)
Introduction of Speaker: Gerhard O.W. Mueller, Chief, United Nations Section on Crime Prevention Control, United Nations
Speaker: Norval Morris, Director, Center for Study of Criminal Justice, University of Chicago

11:00 — 1:00 p.m. — Session A — Lake Erie Room

CRIME AND ITS DETERRENCE

Chairman: Richard L. Henchel, University of Western Ontario

1. "Arrest and Crimes: More on the Deterrence Problem" Alan R. Rowe and Charles R. Tittle, Florida Atlantic University
2. "Subjective Perception of Deterrence, Continued." James J. Teevan, Jr., University of Western Ontario
3. "Executions and Deterrence." William J. Bowers, Russell B. Stearns Center, Northeastern University
4. "General Deterrence and Conceptions of Causality," Douglas Cousineau, Glendon College, York University, Toronto

Session B — Lake Huron Room

CRIMINOLOGICAL RESEARCH AND ETHICS

Chairman: Walter C. Reckless, Ohio State University

Discussant: Phillip R. Kunz, Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah

1. "Violence and Values: The Role of Ontological Assumptions in Criminological Research." Raymond J. Michalowski, Jr., University of New York
2. "Paradigm Shifts in Criminology and Deviance: A Sociology of Knowledge Approach." Joseph A. Scimecca and Sara Lee, State University of New York
3. "Maintaining Research Access in a Commonwealth Bureaucracy." Richard J. Lundman, University of Delaware, and James C. Fox, Minnesota Systems Research, Inc., Minneapolis
4. "Issues Facing the Criminology Researcher." Richard Dembo, New York University

Session C — Lake Superior SOME PROMISING RESEARCH IN CRIME & DELINQUENCY

Chairman: George H. Weber, Deputy Chief, Center for Studies of Crime and Delinquency, National Institute of Mental Health

Note: This session is devoted to research on Crime and Delinquency by the National Institute of Mental Health.

1. "Achievement Place: Implications for Community-based Treatment of Delinquents." Montrose M. Wolf, University of Kansas
2. "Diversion Programs and the Community." Kenneth Polk, University of Oregon
3. "Predictive Sentencing: Empirical Evaluation of an Old Concept." Judge Leo H. Whinery, University of Oklahoma.
4. "Dangerousness in Law/Mental Health: Greek Serin or Dispositional Treatment Aid?" Henry J. Steadman, State of New York Department of Mental Health.

Session D — Tally Ho (East) Room THE INTERFACE BETWEEN VALUES AND CRIMINOLOGICAL RESEARCH

Chairman: John C. Bail, Temple University (past president, American Society of Criminology)

Discussant: Bruno M. Cormier, McGill University (past president, American Society of Criminology)

1. "Can We Have an Empirical Science of Values?" Leonard J. Hippchen, Glassboro State College, New Jersey
2. "A Flow Chart Approach to the Study of Homicide in Canada." Justin Cate, University of Ottawa
3. "Thievery as a Profession: A Footnote on the History of a Curious Idea." Jack Kamerman, William Paterson College of New York
4. "Newspaper Reporting of Crime and Justice, Antecedents of a Moral Order." John C. Meyer, Jr., University of New Haven, Connecticut

Session E — Tally Ho (West) Room CRIMINOLOGICAL RESEARCH: A COMPARATIVE PERSPECTIVE I

Chairman & Discussant:
John P. Conrad, Academy for the Study of Contemporary Problems, Battelle Institute and Ohio State University

1. "Conflict and Crime in Northern Ireland: The Irish Experience." James E. Downey, Northland College, Ashland, Wisconsin
2. "A Cross-Cultural Comparison of Neutralization of Norms Among Delinquent and Nondelinquent Youths." Albert K. Bhak, Indiana State University, and Garold T. Ray, Federal Bureau of Prisons
3. "A Static and Dynamic Analysis of Crime and the Primary Dimensions of Nations." Charles F. Wellford, Florida State University and

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 2

Marvin Krohn, Western Illinois University

4. "Sustaining Legitimacy: Results of a Pilot Study in Sweden." Antoinette N. Hetzler, University of California, Berkeley

Session F — Lake Erie Room

CRIMINOLOGICAL RESEARCH AND ENVIRONMENTAL ISSUES

Chairman: Fred D. Moyer, University of Illinois

Discussant: Jay Friedman, University of Illinois

1. "Housing Patterns and Burglary in a Medium-sized American City." Paul J. Brantingham, Florida State University
2. "The Ecology of Corrections: Towards a Typology of Criminal Justice Systems." Fred Warren Benton, University of Illinois
3. "A Case for Normative Environments for the Mentally Disturbed Offender." Janice Perrier, University of Illinois
4. "Technical, Architectural and Programmatic Approaches to Security in Correctional Environments." Robert Obenland, University of Illinois

Session G — Lake Huron Room

ETHICS AND THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM

Presentations by members of the Illinois Academy of Criminology

Chairman: Harry Woodward, Jr., Lewis Univ., Special Services Center

1. "Ethical Issues in Criminal Justice." Patrick D. McNaney, University of Illinois at Chicago Circle
2. "Criminal Justice Research: Ethics and Comments on a Perspective." Dennis Sullivan, University of Wisconsin at Milwaukee, Larry J. Siegel, Northeastern University, and Larry Tiff, University of Illinois at Chicago Circle
3. "Ethical Issues in Criminal Sentencing." Edward Tromanhauser, Chicago State University

Session H — Lake Superior Room

RADICAL CRIMINOLOGY: THEORY, METHOD AND PRACTICE

Chairman: Charles E. Reardon, University of Calgary, Alberta, Canada

1. Austin T. Turk, University of Toronto, Alberta, Canada
2. Don C. Gibbons, Portland State University
3. Tony Platt, University of California, Berkeley
4. Mimi Goldman, University of Oregon
5. Marie-Andree Bertrand, University of Montreal

Session I — Tally Ho (East) Room

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES FOR PRISON INMATES

Chairman and Discussant: Jacob J. Kaufman, Pennsylvania State University

1. "Prison Environment and Its Relation to Inmate Grievance Procedures." Jacob J. Kaufman, Pennsylvania State University.

2. "The Relation of Courts to Inmate Grievance Procedures." Honorable Donald P. Lay, U. S. Court of Appeals, 8th Circuit, Omaha, Nebraska.
3. "The Impact of Inmate Grievance Procedures on Correctional Administration." Hubert M. Clements, Deputy Director, Department of Corrections, So. Carolina
4. "Inmate Grievance Procedures: Can We Learn from the Private Sector?" Theodore W. Kheel, New York City, Lawyer and Mediator.

Session J — Tally Ho (West) Room

CRIME DETERRENCE AND OFFENDER CAREER

Round Table Discussion

Co-Chairman: Ernest van den Haag, New York University and the New School for Social Research, New York

Robert Martinson, City College of the City University of New York

Session K — Lake Erie Room

CRIMINOLOGICAL RESEARCH: A COMPARATIVE PERSPECTIVE II

Chairman: Paul C. Friday, Western Michigan University

Discussant: Marshall B. Clinard, University of Wisconsin, Madison

1. "Jonathan Edwards and Swedish Corrections." Irving Jacks, Illinois State University
2. "On the Limits of Criminal Sanctions in Poland: Criminal Law and Public Morals." Danuta Pienska, University of Warsaw and State University College at Brockport, State University of New York
3. "Criminalization and Decriminalization: A Cross-National Opinion Survey (Yugoslavia, Italy, India, and Iran)." Graeme R. Newman, State University of New York, Albany
4. "The Scandinavian Myth." H. Laurence Ross, Univ. of Denver
5. Reactants: Paula Newberg, City Colleges of Chicago, and Sandford Sherizen, University of Illinois, Chicago

Session L — Lake Huron Room

VICTIMOLOGY: A NEW FOCUS

Chairman: Emilio Viano, American University

Discussant: Steven Schafer, Northeastern University

1. "Victimization by Government: Failure to Help the Victims of Violent Crime." Lynda Lytle Holmstrom and Ann Wolbert Burgess, Boston College
2. "Aspects of Genocide in the Victimization of the American Indian." Vahaka Dadrian, State University of New York
3. "The Opium Law: A Quid Pro Quo." Paul T. Takagi, University of California, Berkeley
4. "Elderly as Victims of Crime." Simon I. Singer, Northeastern University

Session M — Lake Ontario Room

CRIMINOLOGICAL RESEARCH: THEORETICAL AND PHILOSOPHICAL CONSIDERATIONS

7:00 — 10:00 p.m. —

SATURDAY,
NOVEMBER 2

Chairman: Leonard D. Savitz, Temple University

Discussant: Charles H. McCaghy, Bowling Green State University

1. "Interactionism and Deviance: A Positive View." Raymond L. Schmitt and Stanley E. Grupp, Illinois State University
2. "The Moral Order in Post-Industrial Society: The Need for Macroscopic Perspectives on Crime." Nancy J. Beron, Ohio State University
3. "Punishment in a Just Society." Scott Decker, Florida State University
4. "Repressive Law in Contemporary America." Paul E. Lawson, Montana State University

Session N — Tally Ho (East) Room
THE MORALITY OF PLEA BARGAINING

Panel Discussion presented by members of the Illinois Academy of Criminology

1. Nancy Goldberg, National Legal Aid and Defender Association
2. Marshall Hartman, National Legal Aid and Defender Association
3. Patrick D. McAnany, University of Illinois at Chicago Circle

Session O — Tally Ho (West) Room BEHAVIOR CONTROL

Chairman: C. Ray Jeffery, Florida State University

1. "Neurophysiology and Behavior Control." Frank Ervin, University of California at Los Angeles Medical Center
2. "The Law and Behavior Control." Nicholas N. Kittrie, Washington University School of Law and President-elect, American Society of Criminology.
3. "The Political Implications of Behavior Control." Steven Seitz, Florida State University
4. "Criminology and Behavior Control." C. Ray Jeffery, Florida State University

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1974

9:00 — 10:00 a.m. — Breakfast Meeting of the Editorial Board of Criminology

10:00 — 12:30 p.m. — Session A — Lake Erie Room
METHODOLOGICAL ISSUES IN CRIMINOLOGICAL RESEARCH

Chairman: Sawyer F. Sylvester, Bates College, Lewiston, Maine

Discussant: Frederick Hussey, Pennsylvania State University

1. "Experimental Artifacts in Criminological Research." Siamak Movahedi, University of Massachusetts and Ali Banuazizi, Boston College
2. "Faking it in Jail: Acts Toward a New Criminological Method." Guyon Mersereau, M.D. Forensic Psychiatric Service, Erie County Department of Mental Health, Buffalo, New York
3. "The Validity of Reported Deviance: A Consideration of Research and Measurement Techniques." George Bridges, University of Pennsylvania
4. "Rape as a Crime without Victims or Offenders: A Methodological Critique." Kurt Weiss, Institute of Sociology, Universität des Saarlandes

Session B — Lake Huron Room
GOVERNMENTAL MORALITY:
IMPLICATIONS OF WATERGATE
FOR CRIMINOLOGY

Chairman: Arnold Trebach, American University, Washington, D.C.

Discussant: Robert Kaffer, St. Bernard's College, Cullman, Alabama

1. "Some Criminological Theory and Forecasts for a Society that is Coming Apart." Don C. Gibbons and R. Kelly Hancock, Portland State University
2. "Watergate's Impact Upon Support for the Criminal Justice System: Three Scenarios." Dennis D. Dorin, University of North Carolina at Charlotte
3. "Pre- and Post-Watergate Morality: A Problem of Legal and Normative Ambiguity." Jerome Himelhoch, University of Missouri, St. Louis

Session C — C Lake Superior Room
THE POLICE: CHANGING IMAGES AND PERSPECTIVES

Chairman: Charles L. Newman, Pennsylvania State University and past president, American Society of Criminology

Discussant: Julian Roebuck, Mississippi State University

1. "From Police Force to Police Service: Some Implications." George Sander and Ellen Mintz, York College, City University of New York
2. "Policeman's Image: Public versus the Police." Ibtihaj Ararat, City College, University of New York
3. "Police Reports and Victimization Survey Results: An Empirical Study." M. Katherine Howard, American Justice Institute, San Jose
4. "Toward a Theory of Police Behavior: Some Critical Comments." F. P. Williams III, Florida State University

Session D — Tally Ho (East) Room POLITICAL CRIME AND THE CRIMINOLOGY OF POLITICS

Co-Chairmen: Nicholas N. Kittrie, American University Law School and president-elect, American Society of Criminology

Richard D. Moran, Mt. Holyoke College, Massachusetts

Discussant: Steven Schafer, Northeastern University

1. "Positivism and Political Crime: The Confounding of Crime, Politics, and Madness." Richard D. Moran, Mr. Holyoke College, Massachusetts
2. "Defining Political Crime: An Informational Perspective." Giannina P. Rikoski, University of Chicago Law School
3. "The Classification of Political Criminals." Allan Sewell, Social Psychologist, Evanston, Illinois
4. "The Political Criminal." Ernest van den Haag, New York University

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 3

5. "Political Crime and Extradition," William S. Kenney, President, American Society of the International Association of Penal Law, Washington, D.C.

Session E — Tally Ho (West) Room
RESEARCH IN JUVENILE DELINQUENCY I

Chairman: Marvin E. Wolfgang, University of Pennsylvania and past president, American Society of Criminology

Discussant: John Kramer, Pennsylvania State University

- "The Legal System and Juvenile Justice: An In-depth Study of Consent Decrees used by the St. Louis County Juvenile Court as a Valid Means for Committing a Juvenile to the State Division of Mental Diseases: Need for Procedural Protection of Children in Contact with the Juvenile Justice System." Alphonso Jackson, University of Missouri, St. Louis
- "The Balance of Social Status Groupings within Schools as an Influencing Variable on the Frequency and Character of Delinquent Behavior." Peter C. Kratcoski, and John E. Kratcoski, Kent State University
- "Analysis of Determinants of Multiple Court Appearances by Juvenile Females." Christopher M. Sieverdes, University of North Carolina
- "Sex Differentials Among Juvenile Offenders." Carol Facella, Northeastern University and the University of Pennsylvania

2:00 — 4:30 p.m. — Session F — Lake Erie Room

DECRIMINALIZATION AND THE LEGISLATION OF MORALITY

Chairman: Donald E. J. MacNamara, John Jay College of Criminal Justice, City University of New York and past president, American Society of Criminology

Discussant: Professor Cyril D. Robinson, Pennsylvania State University

- "Organized Crime and Criminal Law Reform in Massachusetts." Robert K. Woetzel, President, Foundation for the Establishment of an International Criminal Court, Newton, Massachusetts
- "Morality and the Law: Are they Absolute or Relative?" Anthony R. Pelquin, Fairfield University, Connecticut
- "The Protestant Ethic and Decriminalization." Vergil L. Williams and John C. Watkins, University of Alabama
- "Public Order, Criminal Behavior and Criminal Laws: The Question of Legal Decriminalization." Steven S. Burkett, Washington State University, and Kenneth A. Johnson, University of Colorado
- "It is Possible to Avoid the Legislation of Morality?" Jeffrey H. Reiman, American University

Session G — Lake Huron Room
WOMEN IN THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM: AGENTS AND ACTORS

Chairman: Margaret A. Zahn, Temple University

Discussant: Freda Adler, School of Criminal Justice, Rutgers University

- "The Female Felon," Ira Silverman, Florida State University
- "Effects of Prisonization: The Case of the Incarcerated Young Female." Matthew T. Zingraff and Marilyn R. Teague, Bowling Green University
- "Sex Roles and Street Roles: Female Functioning in Addict Subcultures." Karen N. Fife, Temple University
- "Women in Policing: Changing Perspectives on the Role." Gerald R. Garrett, University of Massachusetts at Boston

Session H — Lake Superior Room
CORRECTIONS RESEARCH I: FOCUS ON THE INMATE

Chairman and Discussant: William G. Nagel, American Foundation, Institute of Corrections, Philadelphia

- "The Political Prisoner: A Macro-systemic Interpretation." Cyril S.T. Cho, Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections, Ohio
- "The Status of Offender Responsibility." Romaine R. Deming, Northeastern University
- "The Cattel 16 PF as a Measure of Inmate Offense Types." Mark Perkins and John E. Reeves, Jr., University of Georgia
- "Violence in Correctional Institutions: A Study of Assaults." Anthony L. Guenther, College of William and Mary, Virginia

Session I — Tally Ho (East) Room
STUDENT COMPETITION PAPERS

Chairman: William H. Parsonage, Pennsylvania State University

Discussant: Edward Sagarin, President, American Society of Criminology

First, Second, and Third Prize Papers will be presented with Edward Sagarin as reactor. ASC Winners are:

- "Inequality in the Types of Sentence Received by Native Americans and Whites." Albert Simkus, University of Montana
- "Microecology and Labeling Theory: A Proposed Merger." C. Eddie Palmer, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, Blacksburg
- "Psychology of Being the Psychiatrist in Prison: A Study of Punishment and Treatment in California Prisons and the Roles of Psychiatrists and Psychologists." Alberta J. Nassi, University of California at Berkeley

Session J — Tally Ho (West) Room
RESEARCH ON POLICE AND THE PUBLIC

Chairman: David J. Sarr, American University

Discussant: Barbara Price, Pennsylvania State University

- "Police Perceptions of Mentally Distorted Behavior among Juveniles." Ralph L. Blankenship, Virginia Commonwealth University
- "Police Perceptions of Plaintiff

- less Crime." James M. Kretz, Washington Survey, Bureau of Social Science Research, Inc., Washington, D.C.
3. "On the Etiology of Police Aggression in Black Communities." George L. Kirkham, Florida State University
  4. "Problem Areas in Research on Police Corruption." Thomas Barker, Valdosta State College, Georgia
  5. "The Police and Non-Victim Crime: Some New Perspectives." William H. Hewitt, Mansfield State College.

Session K — Lake Ontario
CRIMINOLOGICAL RESEARCH: FOCUS ON THE VICTIM

Chairman: Edwin Lemert, University of California, Davis
 Discussant: Marc Riedel, University of Pennsylvania

1. "The Structure of Homicide in Two American Cities: A Study of the Homicide Victim." Margaret A. Zahn, and J. Glenn Snodgrass, Temple University
2. "A Causal Model of Secondary Deviance: The Case of the Homosexual." Ronald A. Farrell, State University of New York, Albany
3. "Failure or Fakers: A Review of Controversies Concerning Attempted Suicide." Karen A. Laidlaw, Bowling Green State University
4. "From Labeling to Social Control." Edwin Lemert, University of California at Davis
5. "Imperialization and Danger-Avoidance." Seymour Fiddle, University of California at Davis

Session L (Room to be announced)
CURRENT RESEARCH BY THE NATIONAL INSTITUTE FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Chairman: Gerald Caplan, Director, National Institute for Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice
 Moderator: Edith Elisabeth Flynn, University of Illinois

1. "Police." David Farmer, National Institute for Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice
2. "Corrections." George Bollinger, National Institute for Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice
3. "Evaluations." Richard Barnes, National Institute for Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice

Session M (Room to be announced)
RESEARCH IN JUVENILE DELINQUENCY II

Chairman: Terence P. Thornberry, University of Pennsylvania
 Discussant: Robert Figlio, University of Pennsylvania

1. "The New Optic of the Justice Regarding the Sexual Perversion Treatment." Anthony T. Galardo, M.D., Clinique Pinel, Montreal
2. "Boys Who Profit from Juvenile Institutions." Clemens Bartollas, Pembroke State University, North Carolina

3. "High School Education and Delinquency." Joseph J. Senna, Northeastern University
4. "The Unspectacular: Results of Three Local Residential Treatment Programs." Ellen Handler, University of Illinois

4:30 — 5:30 p.m. — ASC BUSINESS MEETING — Open to all members — Tally-Ho Room

7:00 — 8:00 p.m. — Cocktail Reception (cash bar) — Tropical Lounge

8:00 — 9:30 p.m. — American Society of Criminology Banquet — Boulevard Room

Master of Ceremonies: Gerhard O. W. Mueller, Chief, United Nations Section on Crime Prevention Control, United Nations, New York

Presentation of the 1973 Sutherland Award to Edwin Lemert, University of California, Davis

Presentation of the 1974 Sutherland Award to Simon Dinitz, Ohio State University

Presentation of the Sellin-Glueck International Award to Franco Ferracuti, University of Rome

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1974

9:00 — 10:00 a.m. — Plenary Session — East Room

Introduction: E. D. Tromanhauser, Chicago State University

"The National Council on Crime and Delinquency: A Social Action Vehicle for the Professional Criminologist Frederick Ward, Jr., Executive Vice-president (Professional Services) National Council on Crime and Delinquency, Hackensack, New Jersey

10:00 — 12:00 noon — Session A — Tower Hall A

CORRECTIONS RESEARCH II: FOCUS ON THE CORRECTIONAL INSTITUTION

Chairman: Harry Allen, Ohio State University

Discussant: Duncan Chappell, Law and Justice Study Center, Battelle Memorial Institute, Seattle

1. "The Concept of Moral Atmosphere: Evaluating the Moral Climate of Correctional Facilities." Peter Scharf, University of California, Irvine
2. "Reform and Revolution Behind the Walls: The Case of Walla Walla." Gabrielle Tyrner-Stastny and A. Galville Tyrner-Stastny, Central Washington State College, Ellensburg, Washington
3. "The Problem of Overcriminalizing Human Conflict: A Civil Alternative." Carl A. Eklund, Center for Dispute Settlement of the American Arbitration Association, Washington, D.C.
4. "The Right to Treatment versus the Right to Refuse Treatment: An Ethical Dilemma for Prisoners and Professionals." Jill Diane Bottrell, Bangor Mental Health Institute

Session B — Tower Hall B
THE ANTECEDENTS AND CONSEQUENCES OF DISCRETION IN THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM

Chairman: Marc Riedel, University of Pennsylvania

Discussant: Robert A. Silverman, University of Western Ontario

2:00 — 3:30 p.m.

John CARRICHO

I

1. "The Limits of Police Discretion in Lower Class versus Middle Class Environments." George L. Kirkham, Florida State University
2. "The Discretionary Enforcement of Law." Brian A. Grossman, Law Reform Commission of Saskatchewan
3. "The Uses of Discretion in a Maximum Security Hospital: The Dixon Case." Terence P. Thornberry and Joseph E. Jacoby, University of Pennsylvania
4. "Public Opinion in the Criminal Law: An Examination of the Limits of Judicial Discretion." Charles W. Thomas and Samuel C. Foster, College of William and Mary, Virginia, and Florida State University

Session C — Tower Hall

VICTIMS: CRIMINAL JUSTICE AND THE MORAL ORDER

Chairman: Richard D. Knudten, Marquette University, Milwaukee

Discussant: To be announced

1. "Moral Problems of Victimization: Victims and Witness Perception of Crime and the Criminal Justice System." Richard D. Knudten, Marquette University, Milwaukee
2. "The Legal Order and Victim/Witness Problems." Michael Ash, Assistant Prosecutor, Milwaukee County
3. "Crime, Victims and Witnesses as Victims of the Administration of Justice." Mary S. Knudten, Marquette University, Milwaukee
4. "Victim, Witnesses and Decriminalization." Anthony C. Meade, Marquette University, Milwaukee
5. "Victims, Their Needs and Social Services." Ervin Heinzeimann, Executive Director, Wisconsin Correctional Service

Session D — Alhambra

RESEARCH ON DRUG USE AND ADDICTION

Chairman: Carl Chambers, M.D., University of Miami School of Medicine

Discussant: Richard Stephens, Assistant Director, New York Drug Abuse Control Commission

1. "Heroin Addiction: A Social and Ethical Problem." June Morrison, University of Arizona
2. "Intellectual Functioning of Institutionalized Narcotic Addicts with Demographic Analysis." Meni Koslowsky, New York Drug Abuse Control Commission
3. "The Role of Buying and Selling in Illicit Drug Use." Eric W. Single and Denise Kandel, State of New York Department of Mental Hygiene Biometrics Research
4. "Treatment Team Concept within an Institutional Drug Abuse Program." Anthony S. Nadroski and John L. Jerome, Federal Correctional Institution, Fort Worth, Texas
5. "A Two-year Follow-up on Methadone Patients on Criminal Activity, Wages, and Drug Abuse." Dale Sechrest, Center for Criminal Justice, Harvard University Law

School, Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Session E — East Room

SOCIAL RESEARCH AND PLANNED SOCIAL CHANGE: U.S. BOARD OF PAROLE

Chairman: Harry A. Scarr, Office of Justice Policy and Planning, U.S. Department of Justice.

1. John P. Conrad, Academy for the Study of Contemporary Problems, Battelle Institute and Ohio State University
2. William E. Amos, Chairman, Youth Division and Member, U.S. Board of Parole
3. Don M. Gottfredson, Dean, School of Criminal Justice, Rutgers University
4. Peter B. Hoffman, Director of Research, U.S. Board of Parole
5. Charles F. Wellford, Florida State University

12:30 — 1:30 p.m. —

American Society of Criminology Awards Luncheon — Boulevard Room

Master of Ceremonies: To be announced

Presentation of the Vollmer Award to Patrick Murphy, Police Foundation and Sol Rubin, Counsel Emeritus, National Council on Crime and Delinquency

1:30 — 4:00 p.m. —

Session F — Tally Ho East RESEARCH IN PROBATION AND PAROLE

Chairman: William E. Amos, Chairman, Youth Division and Member, U.S. Board of Parole

Discussant: Jack Sussman, American University and University of Maryland

1. "The Right to Remain Silent: the Probation Officer's Moral Dilemma." Rosalind Reiman, Probation Department, Washington, D.C.
2. "Parole Board Decision Making: An Examination of the Criteria Utilized." Joseph E. Scott, John Stahura, and Richard Vandiver, Ohio State University
3. "Parole Board Decisions and the Severity of Punishment: A Critical Reexamination of the Evidence." Albert A. Simkus, Edwin L. Hall, and C. Taylor Griffiths, University of Montana

Session G — Tally Ho West

CORRECTIONS RESEARCH III: FOCUS ON CORRECTIONAL MANPOWER

Chairman: Ronald L. Akers, University of Iowa

Discussant: Alvin W. Cohn, Administration of Justice Services, Rockville, Maryland

1. "Entry Level Security Position, Adult State Penal Institutions." Gary D. Copus, Sam Houston State University, Texas
2. "Inmates' and Security Guards' Perception of Themselves and of Each Other: A Comparative Study." Dae H. Chang, University of Wisconsin at Whitewater

3. "Administrative Demands as Impediments to Treatment in Correctional Institutions." Mark Pogrebin, Florida State University
4. "National Advisory Commission on Criminal Justice Standards and Goals, Manpower Development: State of the Art and Planning in Massachusetts." Tom Saltonstall, Committee on Criminal Justice, Boston

Session H — King Arthur

ISSUES IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE: RESEARCH AND PLANNING

Chairman and Discussant: Milton Luger, Director, Division for Youth, Albany, New York

1. "State Legislative Perception of Criminal Justice Issues." Winifred M. Lyday and Michael Kannensohn, Council of State Governments, Chicago and New York
2. "Comprehensive Criminal Justice Data Systems: Participation by State Supreme Courts." Winifred M. Lyday, Council of State Governments, Chicago
3. "State of the Art of Criminal Justice Planning in the States." Jag C. Uppal, Council of State Governments, Lexington, Kentucky
4. "Burglary and the Public: A Victimological Approach to Criminal Justice." Irving J. Waller and Norm Okhiro, Center of Criminology, University of Toronto

Session I — Tower Hall A

CURRENT RESEARCH FOCUSING ON THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM

Chairman: Frank E. Hartung, Wayne State University

Discussant: Charles F. Wheeler, Illinois Law Enforcement Commission, Chicago, Illinois

1. "Paperwork, Interpersonal Others and Working with Referrals to the Juvenile Court." James R. Gillham, and Carl Bersani, University of Akron
2. "The Prosecuting Attorney and the Deviant Label." L. Thomas Winfree, University of Montana, and Lawrence KieRch, Ph.D., Aquinas College, Grand Rapids, Michigan
3. "The Legal Dilemma of Mental Illness: Persecution in the Name of Mental Health." D.M. Azimi and Beverly Nussbaumer, Indiana University of Pennsylvania

Session J — Tower Hall B

THE MANAGEMENT OF CONFLICT IN THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM

Co-Chairpersons: Edith Elisabeth Flynn, University of Illinois
Irving Goldaber, New York

1. "The Sociological Perspective." Irving Goldaber, New York
2. "The Psychological Perspective." Hans Toch, State University of New York at Albany
3. "The Legal Perspective." Jesse Kasowitz, General Counsel and Assistant Director, High Impact

Anti-Crime Agency of Newark, New Jersey

4. "From the Perspective of the Administrator." David Fogel, Executive Director, Illinois Law Enforcement Commission
5. "A Synthesis of the Viewpoints." Edith Elisabeth Flynn, University of Illinois

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CRIMINOLOGY
1974 Meeting

Host Committee

Bryant Feather, Director, Center for Corrections, Chicago State University

Edward Tromanhauser, President Illinois Academy of Criminology

Harry H. Woodward, Jr., President, World Correctional Service Center

Honorary Host Committee

Academic

Lawrence Bernstone, Director, Corrections Program, Lewis University

William L. Bowers, Coordinator, Administration of Criminal Justice Programs, Bradley University

Robert M. Crane, Director, Social Justice Professions, Sangamon State University

Irving Jacks, Director, Program in Corrections, Illinois State University

Charles V. Matthews, Director, Center for the Study of Crime, Delinquency, and Corrections, Southern Illinois University

Norval Morris, Director, Center for the Study of Criminal Justice, University of Chicago

James Osterberg, Chairman, Department of Criminal Justice, University of Illinois at Chicago Circle

Lionel Rankin, Coordinator, Law Enforcement Program, Morton College

Salvatore Rotella, Dean, Public Service Institute, Loop College, City Colleges of Chicago

Professional

Richard Elrod, Sheriff of Cook County Illinois

David Fogel, Director, Illinois Law Enforcement Commission

Richard G. Held, Special Agents in Charge, Chicago Field Office, Federal Bureau of Investigation

William R. Nelson, Warden, Metropolitan Correctional Center, U.S. Bureau of Prisons, Chicago

Joseph A. Power, Presiding Judge, Criminal Division, Circuit Court of Cook County Illinois

James M. Rochford, Superintendent of Police, Chicago, Illinois

Stephen Schiller, Director, Chicago Crime Commission

Allyn R. Sielaff, Director, Illinois Department of Corrections