

Assistant Professor, Criminal Justice

The Department of Sociology and Criminal Justice seeks candidates for a full time position at the Assistant Professor level. Candidate should have the ability and desire to teach core undergraduate Criminal Justice courses such as Criminal Law, Corrections, Criminology, and Capstone courses. Candidate should be able to teach at least part of each semester course load in the evening and be comfortable with hybrid delivery. This position must be able to teach at both our Milton and Plymouth campuses. The department is seeking candidates with a strong history of effective teaching. Screening and review of candidate application materials will begin November 20, 2018.

Minimum Requirements:

A Ph.D. in Criminal Justice or closely related discipline is required. The department is seeking candidates with a strong history of effective teaching.

Employment in this position is contingent upon the successful completion of all required pre-employment background checks.

Please apply online at <https://www.curry.edu/about-us/community-resources/employment/job-opportunities> for consideration. Interested applicants must submit curriculum vitae, cover letter including a description of your teaching philosophy, a statement of contributions to diversity (statement addressing past and/or potential contributions to diversity through teaching, research, professional activity and/or service), and a copy of your unofficial transcript (an official transcript will be required upon acceptance of an offer of employment) and three letters of recommendation. Letters of recommendation can be sent to kdemeo0513@curry.edu.

CORE REQUISITES

Are you legally authorized to work in the United States for any employer on an unrestricted basis? 25

Do you have a Ph.D. in Criminal Justice or closely related discipline? 20

Do you have the ability and desire to teach core undergraduate courses in Criminal Justice? 15

Are you able to demonstrate a strong history of effective teaching? 15

Are you able to teach in both the Milton and Plymouth campuses? 15

Are you able to teach in the evening? 5

Are you comfortable with or willing to be trained in hybrid delivery? 5

Interview Exchange Posting – Assistant Professor, Criminal Justice 2019 (FT) 3rd line