

Create.
Inspire.
Achieve.

HUMBER

Make a positive career move.

ACADEMIC POSITION OPPORTUNITY

Job Title: Professor, Bachelor of Criminal Justice
Division/Department: School of Social & Community Services
Reporting To: Associate Dean
Salary:

Competition #: 2018-171
Status: Full-Time
Campus: North/Lakeshore/Orangeville

Academic start salaries are determined by qualifications and years of related experience as detailed in the current Collective Agreement for Academic Employees.

POSITION SUMMARY:

The successful candidate will teach in the Bachelor of Social Science, Criminal Justice. In addition to teaching, the incumbent will: create an effective learning environment; assess student progress and achievement; support student recruitment, student mentoring, and student advising; implement innovative instructional techniques, design and develop curriculum, designing/revising specific courses and regularly revising course outlines. The successful candidate will contribute to the overall direction of the program, assisting with the promotion and marketing of the programs; be expected to engage in committee work, departmental initiatives, and classroom-relevant research; as well as consulting colleagues and related associations. Developing and maintaining strong industry ties is also required. Teaching may be assigned at any Humber campus, with the majority of the curriculum being delivered at the Lakeshore campus.

QUALIFICATIONS:

The successful candidate will possess a PhD (or ABD with completion within two years of hire). Work experience in Criminal Justice, Criminology, or Sociology is required as well as a minimum of 5 years of proven teaching experience at the post-secondary level. The successful candidate will have demonstrated a commitment to excellence in the classroom with a dynamic and diverse student population. The successful candidate should have a background in applied research, and possess the ability to support research activities in the school. Additional qualifications include: demonstrated ability/experience in curriculum development and delivery; an understanding of, and competency in the teaching/learning profession with a learning-centered approach; well-developed interpersonal communication and problem solving skills; superior and demonstrable written and oral communication, mediation, teamwork, and interpersonal skills; proven ability to work in a diverse environment and demonstrated understanding of equity and inclusion; demonstrated high degree of attention and focus to detail. The incumbent will demonstrate the School of Social and Community Services core values of inclusion, compassion, integrity, self-awareness, and respect.

Note: Candidates are asked to identify in their cover letter what courses within the Bachelor of Criminal Justice curriculum they are best suited to teach.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; internal candidates will be given consideration in accordance with the collective agreement. We thank all applicants for their interest in this position, please note that only candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.

Humber College is committed to a workforce that reflects the diversity of our students and our city. We actively seek qualified individuals from equity seeking groups with demonstrated skills and knowledge to deal with all aspects of equity, diversity and inclusion in a post-secondary environment. Humber College is committed to accommodating applicants with disabilities throughout the hiring process, in accordance with the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA). Our Recruitment Coordinators will work with applicants requesting accommodations at any stage of the hiring process. This document is available in alternate formats upon request.

OPEN DATE: May 31, 2018

CLOSE DATE: June 11, 2018

All candidates are asked to submit a cover letter and resume to HR Services by applying online at: www.humber.ca/careers

