FACULTY VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

ABOUT JOHN JAY COLLEGE John Jay College of Criminal Justice, a senior college of the City University of New York (CUNY), under the leadership of its new President, former U.S. Assistant Attorney General, Karol V. Mason, John Jay is an internationally recognized leader in educating for justice and dedicated to the advancement of justice and just societies around the world. Committed to access and excellence, John Jay College is a Hispanic-serving institution, and one that has been ranked third in the nation in black student success and a top ten institution for promoting student social mobility. John Jay is proud to serve a diverse and dynamic student body that includes nearly fifty percent students who are first in their family to attend college as well as students who are immigrants, from low-income families, or from other historically underrepresented groups.

Founded in 1964, John Jay College is the preeminent international leader in educating for justice, offering a rich liberal arts and professional curriculum that prepares its 15,000 students to serve the public interest as ethical leaders and engaged citizens. Located steps from Lincoln Center at the cultural heart of New York City, the College is a public liberal arts institution offering bachelors' and masters' degrees and participating in the doctoral programs of the Graduate Center of the City University of New York. Over the past 12 years, the college has experienced unprecedented faculty hiring and expansion of its curricular offerings. John Jay College has traditional criminal justice-related programs and a growing portfolio of liberal arts and sciences programs that highlight themes of justice across the arts, sciences, humanities, and social sciences. Students can choose from 29 majors, 40 minors and 10 master's degree programs, as well as doctoral programs in Criminal Justice, Psychology and Law, and Clinical Psychology. Twelve research centers and institutes support innovative academic research and provide professional development and training at the college. In 2011, the college opened a new 600,000 square foot building with a black-box theater, state-of-the-art lab space, a moot court, and a variety of virtual learning settings.

POSITION OVERVIEW The Department of Law, Police Science & Criminal Justice Administration at John Jay College of Criminal Justice, City University of New York, seeks a seasoned and outstanding chair and faculty member in criminal justice, criminology or a related field, qualified for appointment at the rank of Associate or Full Professor with tenure, to serve as Chairperson effective Fall 2018. This position is an opportunity to provide progressive leadership to John Jay's flagship and largest department, serving four thousand undergraduate students in its B.S. in Criminal Justice and B.S. in Police Studies. The department features a versatile and accomplished faculty of approximately 25 full-time and nearly 100 part-time scholars, lawyers and practitioners who play key roles as directors or instructors for a broad array of undergraduate and graduate programs. Faculty also teach and advise extensively in various doctoral programs of the City University of New York's Graduate Center, including the Ph.D. program in Criminal Justice.

Duties related to the administration of the department include managing the departmental budget and supervising the hiring of adjunct faculty and staff;
