The Multnomah County Department of Community Justice is announcing two new positions with the Research and Planning Team.

Research Operations Manager - $57,695.28 - $89,036.16 Annually

This is a critical position in the Department of Community Justice Research and Planning unit. Information generated by this unit will influence and improve the policies and operations of the entire department impacting over 10,000 justice-involved individuals per year.

In this role, you will:

- Supervise and mentor a team of data analysts and other research staff
- Help manage research unit operations in a fast-paced, data driven environment
- Track budget expenses, oversee mandatory grant reporting activities, and conduct project management
- Identify compelling research questions and analysis needs for the management teams within the Adult Services Division, Juvenile Services Division, and Director's Office

Research Evaluation Scientist - $53,802.05 - $80,702.40 Annually

The Department of Community Justice is seeking an individual who can provide scientific direction and oversight for multiple process, outcome and impact studies. We are looking for someone with a passion for working in applied research settings and a skill set for advancing system improvements.

This is a 0.8 FTE position, approximately 32 hours per week. Scheduled work hours are flexible based on candidate and unit needs.

In this role, you will:

- Serve as a Principal Investigator for mid-size to large research and evaluation projects
- Direct, design and implement research and evaluations studies to advance operations and outcomes
- Conceptualize innovative research designs
- Develop competitive grant applications and related proposes
- Advance system improvements in the delivery of mental health, substance abuse, healthcare, and other wraparound services for justice-involved populations
- Participate and drive initiatives to identify and address racial and ethnic disparities in public safety.

These positions will be open until January 7, 2018. For more information and to apply, please visit
