

Center Director, Courts and Corrections – RTI International

RTI's Division for Applied Justice Research has an opening for a Center Director focusing on projects on areas related to Courts and Corrections.

The Center Director is responsible for:

- Developing and implementing Center strategy and business development plan
- Participating as a member of division leadership team
- Ensuring RTI's quality management programs and standards are applied throughout the Center
- Employee growth and development
- Administrative management

The Center Director will report to the Vice President, Applied Justice Research.

Core areas of research will include, but not limited to:

- Courts
- Prosecution
- Corrections
- Prisoner reentry

The preferred working location for this position is the RTI Headquarters in Research Triangle Park, NC, but other locations may be considered.

Qualifications/Requirements:

- PhD with 12 years of relevant experience or Master's degree with 16 years of relevant experience.
- Experience should be in a specific area involving criminal justice agencies and populations, ideally in courts and corrections.
- Experience managing or mentoring groups of research staff.
- Experience developing research portfolios.

Interested/qualified candidates please send resume/credentials to; atturner@rti.org