

Associate Professor (tenure-track)/Director of Criminal Justice

The Department of Social Sciences at Texas A&M International University seeks an Associate Professor of Criminal Justice (tenure-track, 9-month position) to begin Fall 2019. Duties include directing the Criminal Justice Program and teaching undergraduate and online graduate courses. A reduced load (2-2) is provided to allow for those administrative duties.

Required Qualifications:

The successful candidate must hold an earned doctorate in Criminal Justice or closely related field, all specializations are open. Experience in teaching, research, and service appropriate for appointment at the rank of Associate Professor is required. At least 2 years of academic administrative experience is also required.

We desire candidates with experience in administration and/or academic leadership positions.

Other Information:

TAMIU is a growing university of over 7,500 students located in Laredo, Texas, a vibrant bilingual, bi-cultural city with a population of about 250,000 on the U.S./Mexico border. For more information, visit www.tamiu.edu. TAMIU offers competitive salaries and a benefits package covering health insurance, retirement benefits, and paid parental leave. Financial support for professional development opportunities, such as attending academic conferences, is also provided. Moving expenses are covered by the university.

The completed employment application must include a letter of interest that addresses qualifications, curriculum vitae, unofficial transcripts, and the names and contact information of three professional references. Applications must be submitted online at <https://employment.tamiu.edu>. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

For more information, contact Search Committee Chair: Dr. Frances Bernat at frances.bernat@tamiu.edu or 956-326-2644.

TAMIU IS AN EO / AA / VETERANS / DISABILITY EMPLOYER

Applicants are subject to a criminal history investigation and employment is contingent on the results of the criminal history investigation.