ETHICS OF PARTICIPATION IN AND GUIDELINES FOR PARTICIPANTS AT THE ASC ANNUAL MEETINGS

The following are standards for participating at the ASC annual meetings. If you have any suggestions or comments, contact Chris Eskridge (ceskridge@unl.edu).

Introduction
By submitting a paper or poster, or agreeing to participate in any other manner at the ASC meetings, you are making a professional commitment to fulfill these roles. Please see below for the professional expectations for specific roles.

Abstract Instructions: A typical abstract will summarize, in one paragraph of 200 words or less, the major aspects of your research, including: 1) the purpose of the study and the research problem(s) you investigate; 2) the design of the study; 3) major findings of your analysis; and 4) a brief summary of your interpretations and conclusions. Although not all abstracts will conform to this format, they should all contain enough information to frame the problem and orient the conclusions.

Session Chairs
- If you would like to view the papers and/or abstracts in your session before the meeting please contact the authors direct. You will need to log into the submission site to obtain their names and emails.
- After you pick up your registration materials at the meeting, you may want to spend a few minutes locating the room in which your session will be held.
- Arrive at the meeting room in advance of the session you chair to greet the presenters, ensure that the room is set up properly, and that the audio-visual equipment is in place and functional.
- The session is 80 minutes long. Allow at least 10 minutes for questions and comments from the audience. Divide the remaining time evenly between the presenters. Inform them of the amount of time available to them at least two weeks before the meeting.
- Convene the session promptly at the announced time.
- Introduce each presenter with a title and institutional affiliation.
- Politely inform the presenters when their time limit is approaching. Many chairs hold up note to the presenter at 5 minute, 1 minute, and the end of their allocated time.
- When the announced presentations have been completed, invite questions and comments from the audience. Some chairs invite speakers from the audience to identify themselves by name and institutional affiliation.
- Adjourn the session promptly at the announced time. This is very important as the participants in the next session will need time to set up as well so that session can start on time.
- If, for some reason, you are unable to attend your session as scheduled, please let each of the presenters and the discussant know AND designate an alternate chair. Also, contact the ASC office (asc@asc41.com) and inform them of the change.

Session Presenters
- Provide your own laptop for the session. An LCD projector and screen will be provided. No other equipment will be provided (ie., no overheads projectors, monitors, internet hookups, nor VCR/DVD equipment).
- If you wish to show a video or movie during a session you will need to bring your own speakers, they will not be provided at the meeting.
- Practice your talk ahead of time so that you know it fits within your allotted time.
- Your chair will tell you in advance your allotted time. Sessions are scheduled for one hour and twenty minutes (80 minutes). Divide by the number of people participating in your session, allowing at least ten minutes for questions and answers.
- After you pick up your registration materials at the meeting, you may want to spend a few minutes locating the room in which your session will be held.
- Arrive in your scheduled room at least five minutes before the session is scheduled to start.
- Plan a brief presentation. The session chair will keep track of time and will alert you when you should begin wrapping up your talk. Pay attention to these cues. Begin concluding your talk when prompted by the chair.
- If, for some reason, you are unable to attend your session as scheduled, please let the chair know. Also, contact the ASC office (asc@asc41.com) and inform them of the change.

Roundtable Presenters
Typically there are four presentations at the roundtable sessions. Each presenter will have about 15 minutes, but there will be a session chair who will establish the exact limit. This venue is different from the usual sessions in that they are more informal. Expect attendees to ask many questions during your presentation, and you as a presenter are encouraged to do the same when others present their materials. The operative roundtable session concepts are sharing and suggestion rather than critique, as roundtable presentations are typically works-in-progress. The authors of roundtable papers are looking for new ideas and alternate perspectives to help them with their research efforts, with the typical goal of then preparing a full-blown paper for future presentation and eventual publication.

Poster Session Presenters
Poster sessions are intended to present research in a format that is easy to scan and absorb quickly. This session is designed to facilitate more in-depth discussion of the research than is typically possible in a symposium format. The Poster Session will be held on the Thursday of the week of the meeting. ASC will not provide AV equipment for this session. There are no electrical outlets for user-supplied equipment. Push-pins will be provided.

- Prepare all poster material ahead of time.
- Be sure that your presentation fits on one poster. The poster board is 4 feet high and 8 feet wide.
- The success of your poster depends on the ability of viewers to readily understand the material. Therefore:
Keep the presentation simple.
Prepare a visual summary of the research with enough information to stimulate interested viewers (not a written research paper).
Use bulleted phases rather than narrative text.
Prepare distinct panels on the poster to correspond to the major parts of the presentation. For example, consider including a panel for each of the following: Introduction, methods, results, conclusions, and references.
Number each panel so that the reader can follow along in the order intended.
Ensure that all poster materials can be read from three feet away. We suggest an Arial font with bold characters. Titles and headings should be at least 1 inch high. DO NOT use a 12 point font.
Prepare a title board for the top of the poster space indicating the title and author(s). The lettering for this title should be no less than 1.5 inches high.
Do not mount materials on heavy board. These may be difficult to keep in position on the poster board.

- Arrive early to set up. Each poster will be identified with a number. This number corresponds to the number printed in the program for your presentation.
- Make sure that at least one author is in attendance at the poster for the entire duration of the panel session.
- Remove materials promptly at the end of the session.
- If, for some reason, you are unable to attend the poster session, contact the ASC office (asc@asc41.com) and inform them.

Author Meets Critics

Chair:
- After you pick up your registration materials at the meeting, you may want to spend a few minutes locating the room in which your session will be held.
- Arrive at the meeting room in advance of the session you chair to greet the presenters, ensure that the room is set up properly, and that the audio-visual equipment is in place and functional.
- The session is 80 minutes long. Allow at least 10 minutes for questions and comments from the audience. Divide the remaining time evenly between the Critics and the Author. Inform them of the amount of time available to them at least two weeks before the meeting.
- Convene the session promptly at the announced time. Introduce each Critic and the Author with a title and institutional affiliation.
- Politely inform the Critics and the Author when their time limit is approaching. Many chairs hold up note to the presenter at 5 minute, 1 minute, and the end of their allocated time.
- When the announced presentations have been completed, invite questions and comments from the audience. Some chairs invite speakers from the audience to identify themselves by name and institutional affiliation.
- Adjourn the session promptly at the announced time. This is very important as the participants in the next session will need time to set up as well so that session can start on time.
- If, for some reason, you are unable to attend your session as scheduled, please let each of the presenters and the discussant know AND designate an alternate person to chair the session. Also, contact the ASC office (asc@asc41.com) and inform them of the change.

Critics:
- Provide your own laptop for the session if you wish to make any kind of electronic presentation. An LCD projector and screen will be provided. No other equipment will be provided (ie., no overheads projectors, monitors, internet hookups, nor VCR/DVD equipment).
- Practice your talk ahead of time so that you know it fits within your allotted time.
- After you pick up your registration materials at the meeting, you may want to spend a few minutes locating the room in which your session will be held.
- Arrive in your scheduled room at least five minutes before the session is scheduled to start.
- Plan a brief presentation.
- The session chair will keep track of time and will alert you when you should begin wrapping up your talk. Pay attention to these cues. Begin concluding your talk when prompted by the chair.
- If, for some reason, you are unable to attend this session as scheduled, please let the chair know, and contact the ASC office (asc@asc41.com) and inform them.

Authors:
- After you pick up your registration materials at the meeting, you may want to spend a few minutes locating the room in which your session will be held.
- Arrive in your scheduled room at least five minutes before the session is scheduled to start.
- Provide your own laptop for the session if you wish to make any kind of electronic presentation. An LCD projector and screen will be provided. No other equipment will be provided (ie., no overheads projectors, monitors, internet hookups, nor VCR/DVD equipment).
- Take notes during the Critics talks, and respond briefly to their comments.
- The session chair will keep track of time and will alert you when you should begin wrapping up your talk. Pay attention to these cues. Begin concluding your talk when prompted by the chair.
- If, for some reason, you are unable to attend your session as scheduled, please let the chair know, and contact the ASC office (asc@asc41.com) and inform them.
Services offered: The ASC Employment Exchange provides an on-going, web-based listing service that operates year round. The service allows employers to advertise their position openings and ASC members to publicize their availability for employment. At the annual meeting, the ASC Employment Exchange also makes available printed copies of position announcements and candidate listings for review, a self-service message exchange board to facilitate communication between prospective employers and job candidates, and a discussion seating area (operated on a first-come, first-served basis) for employment-related conversations.

Position and candidate listings: At the annual meeting, multiple ring binders are made available with printed copies of position announcements and candidate listings. The binders contain the listings that are active on the website around the time of the meeting, as well as listings that are submitted at the annual meeting. Purchase of a web listing is required to be included in the binders; placement in the position listing binders is included in the fee. Position listings purchased at the annual meeting are posted on the website shortly after the meeting.

The fee schedule is as follows (minimum of one month):
- $250 for the first month
- $200 for the second month
- $125 for each month thereafter

There is no charge for the candidate listing service at the meeting.

Deadline for submissions: Friday, November 1, 2019 for pre-meeting position announcements and candidate submissions. Submissions prior to the annual meeting should be made via the web at https://www.asc41.com/employment.htm.

Submissions also are accepted on-site at the annual meeting. For on-site submissions, institutional representatives should bring a copy of their advertisement (containing information on how to contact institutional representatives at the annual meeting, if desired), and billing contact information. Payment for the ad posting is required on-site. Cash, check, credit card, or PO’s are accepted. The ad will be posted online upon staff returning to the ASC office.

Candidates should bring 12 copies of a cover page (with contact information) summarizing their skills, interests and credentials, as well as 12 copies of their vita, all on 3-hole punch paper.

The Division of Rural Criminology

Over 40 percent of the world’s population lives in rural places, from outback communities of Australia to farming villages of Kenya to bedroom towns of the U.S. within easy reach of an urban center. Found in every country but a few are rural populations who often face the same challenges of crime as their urban cousins, problems frequently exacerbated by a lack of police and other criminal justice services.

To bring more attention to issues of rural crime and criminal justice, the new Division of Rural Criminology will hold its very first business meeting, including the installation of its first set of officers at its business meeting, which is scheduled for Wednesday, November 14 from 5:00 to 6:20 PM in the Marriott, Salon C3, B2 Level. All are welcome to attend, lend moral support, volunteer, pay dues, and become a member of the Kickstarter Fund (see below).

On Friday, November 15, from 7:00-9:00 PM, the Division will co-sponsor the department night reception with West Virginia University. Location to be announced later.

Dues are set at $5 for students and $15 for faculty. In addition, there is a Kickstarter Fund for those who wish to contribute more. Kickstarter Funds are dedicated to operational expenses in early years, and the future development of student travel scholarships and other good causes. Recommended amounts are in multiples of the dues structure. For example, faculty who wish to contribute more than $15, dedicated to the Division of Rural Criminology, should consider $30, $45, $60 etc. Likewise, student can contribute in five dollar multiples. All contributions are tax deductible and individuals who give at a higher rate than standards dues amounts will be recognized as members of the Division of Rural Criminology’s Kickstarter Fund.

Please join us via the ASC membership form for $15 ($5 for students) available at: http://www.asc41.com/appform1.html

Are you interested in using feminist perspectives to study crime, victimization, or the criminal justice system? Do you have a passion for issues related to gender, crime, and justice? Do you want mentorship, professional advice, or suggestions for your research or teaching? Are you looking for a supportive community of scholars? If so, we hope you will become a member of DWC.

Where Can You Find Us at the ASC Annual Meeting? The DWC provides a variety of opportunities for professional development and social interaction during the ASC Annual Meeting, including:
- Social Justice Connections Network event on Tuesday afternoon
- Member social on Wednesday evening
- Business meeting & awards ceremony on Thursday morning
- Professional Development Workshops
- Policy Sessions related to women as victims, offenders & practitioners
- Outreach table, all day Wednesday through Friday
- Panels and presentations throughout the Annual Meeting

What Do We Offer? The DWC promotes professional development among its members to advance feminist criminological scholarship, pedagogy, and advocacy. Benefits of DWC membership include:

Our Journal: Feminist Criminology (fcx.sagepub.com) is the DWC’s official journal. It publishes research related to women, girls, gender, and crime within the context of feminist criminology.

Our Website & Newsletter: Check out the DWC website (ascdwc.com), where you’ll find current and archived newsletters, scholarship and award information, teaching resources, and more. Our quarterly newsletter, the DivisionNews, features information about member news, job announcements, and funding opportunities, as well as “Ask a Senior Colleague,” “Teaching Tips,” and “Graduate Student Corner” columns.

Our Listserv & Social Media: Our listserv is a forum for members who seek information on career decisions, curricular development, research expertise, and other professional development issues. You can also follow the DWC on our social media outlets: Facebook, Twitter, and LinkedIn. Visit ascdwc.com/communication to sign up.

Mentoring: The Dr. Christine Rasche Mentoring Program is designed to build community through mentorship, matching junior members with leading DWC scholars. We are committed to engaging a diverse group of students, practitioners, and faculty, including international colleagues.

Awards: Each year, the DWC recognizes contributions of our faculty scholars, students and professional members. Awards are given in many categories. Two prestigious awards for students are: The Larry J. Siegel Graduate Fellowship for the Study of Gender and Crime and The Feminist Criminology Graduate Research Scholarship (one-time scholarship of US$5,000 each and two runner-up awards of $500 each). We also have domestic and international travel grants as well as a travel grant for law enforcement professionals.

CSW: The Commission on the Status of Women (CSW) is the principal global intergovernmental body exclusively dedicated to the promotion of gender equality and the empowerment of women. Starting 2019, the DWC participated in United Nations Commission on Status for Women events in New York held every March.

Policy & Advocacy: The DWC held its first Congressional Briefing in 2018 at Capitol Hill in Washington DC and continues to engage in public policy and advocacy on issues related to gender and justice.

How Can You Join Us? Join the DWC when you join or renew your ASC membership, with both 1- and 3-year options available. Come visit us at the outreach table, located near the ASC registration booth, to learn more.

DIVISION OF DEVELOPMENTAL AND LIFE-COURSE CRIMINOLOGY

www.dlccrim.org

AIMS AND SCOPE

The aims of the Division of Developmental and Life-course Criminology are:

1. To advance developmental and life-course criminology and the study of criminal careers,
2. To bring together ASC members interested in discussing and supporting developmental and life-course research in criminology,
3. To facilitate and encourage interaction and dissemination of developmental and life-course research among ASC members, practitioners, funding agencies, policy-making bodies, and other relevant groups, and
4. To organize and promote ASC conference sessions related to issues in developmental and life-course research in criminology.

AWARDS

The Life-time Achievement Award recognizes an individual who has a record of sustained and outstanding contribution to scholarly knowledge on developmental and life-course criminology.

The Early Career Award recognizes an individual who has made a significant contribution to scholarly knowledge on developmental and life-course criminology in their early career.

The Outstanding Contribution and Outstanding Student Contribution Awards recognize a DLC book, article, or book chapter published in the previous two years.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Introduction
As an organization, we uphold our Code of Ethics (approved March 2016). Section II #5 of the Code states, “In their professional activities, ASC members are committed to enhancing the general well-being of societies and of the individuals and groups within them. Thus, ASC members have an obligation to avoid forms of social injustice such as discrimination, oppression, or harassment.” Section II #10 of the Code states, “ASC members do not force, coerce, or obtain through manipulation personal favors, sexual activity or economic or professional advantages from any person including faculty, students, research respondents, clients, patients, research assistants, clerical staff or colleagues. ASC members will not engage in workplace harassment, aggression, or bullying of any kind.”

We remind all participants in ASC activities during the annual meeting that the Code of Ethics will be upheld so that all its members enjoy a welcoming environment free from unlawful discrimination, harassment and retaliation. We refer to this as the Code of Conduct.

Application
This policy applies to all participants in ASC activities, including but not limited to event attendees, professionals, students, guests, staff, contractors, exhibitors, and participants in scientific sessions, on tours, and other social events of any ASC meeting or other activity.

Expected Conduct
All participants at ASC meetings are expected to abide by the Code of Conduct in all meeting venues including ancillary events as well as official and unofficial social gatherings. This Code of Conduct is designed to reinforce the norms of professional respect that are necessary to promote the conditions for free academic interchange. If you witness potential harm to a conference participant, please be proactive, to the extent that you are comfortable, in helping to present or mitigate that harm.

Unacceptable conduct
Threatening physical or verbal actions and disorderly or disruptive conduct will not be tolerated. Harassment, including verbal comments relating to gender, sexual orientation, disability, race, ethnicity, religion, age, national origin, gender identity or expression, veteran status or other protected statuses, or sexual images in public spaces, deliberate intimidation, stalking, unauthorized or inappropriate photography or recording, inappropriate physical contact, and unwelcome sexual attention, will not be tolerated.

This year, ASC will be introducing a new type of presentation called “Lightning Talks” at the annual meeting.

What is a lightning talk? A lightning talk is a brief 5-minute presentation that focuses on an idea or topic. Lightning talks can also provide an update on key findings. If they are well organized, lightning talk sessions can be excellent opportunities to promote conversations and future collaborations.

Lightning Talk sessions will be organized around themes or ideas. Each session will include 6-7 presentations with time for Q&A after all presentations have been completed.

Here are some helpful tips for making your lightning talks successful:

1) Make your point and make it early.
2) Don’t spend too much time on extraneous details. Focus.
3) Practice! Practice! Practice! A brief script is a good idea. Practice reading your script before your session. It’s okay if you go under 5 minutes, but not longer.
4) PowerPoint is a great tool for presenting lightning talks, but if you use slides make sure to limit your slides to 3-5 visually appealing slides with only 1-2 words per slide.

To ensure the lightning talk sessions run effectively a facilitator will be assigned to each session. This person will be responsible for obtaining slide presentations from all presenters BEFORE the scheduled lightning session and loading them on a single computer. The facilitator will also keep time during the lightning talk sessions to ensure that all presenters adhere to the 5-minute rule.

Following these guidelines will ensure that your lightning talk session will be stimulating, enjoyable, and exciting.
